Dear Alice:

I have just answered Mrs. Adams letter. I could not give her much encouragement but advised her the best I could. I am herewith returning her letter.

Very truly yours,

Salem, New Jersey.

Dear Alice:

Grandpa is fine! So is the new mother and the granddaughter.

Many thanks for the two clippings about the new Chinese numismatic society and the personnel of the Shanghai museum. Some months ago I wrote to the Curator, H. E. Gibson, but have heard nothingfrom him. I suppose we will be seeing you soon.

With best of wishes,

IW:JG
